BACKGROUND:

I started with Dundee Violet in 1960 as a goalkeeper, but before that I had a try as a left back with a School squad. In 1970 I arrived in Melbourne to join Hakoah, from where I moved to Albion Rovers and in 1974 I spent a year in Japan with YOMUARI TOKIO. With that club I went on a European tour which included Holland and West Germany during the World Cup 1974. I came back to Melbourne in 1976 to join J.U.S.T., the club I am still playing for, except for a short period in 1980, when I was on a loan to S.M. Hellas.

HONOURS:

Dundee Town Select Squad under 18

BIGGEST SUCCESS:

Winning State League Cup with J.U.S.T. twice in a row.

BEST GOALKEEPER IN AUSTRALIA:

I think Martin Crook from Adelaide Hawks

BEST PLAYER:

Jim Hermiston from Brisbane Lions

FAVORITE CLUB (beside J.U.S.T.):

Arsenal, London

AMBITION:

To represent Victoria and Australia

ARE YOU FRIGHTENED OF PENALTIES:

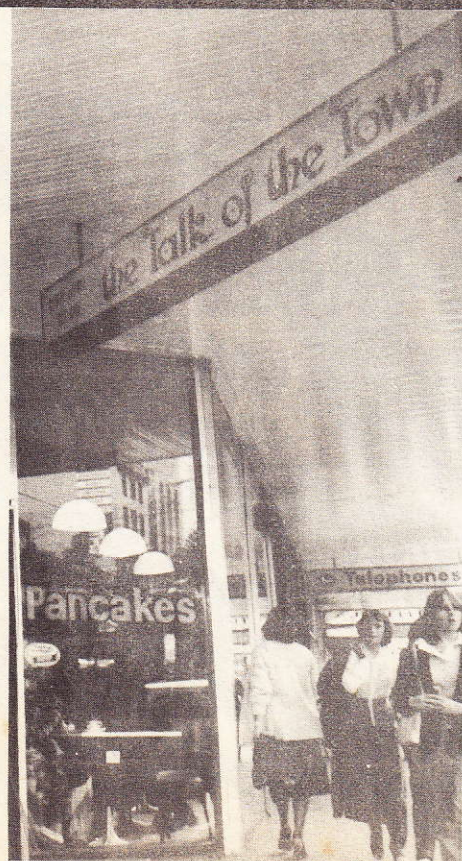

Nobody likes them, but I have a good record - 40% saved

Socceroos hold on to win 3-2

ADELAIDE. — Australia survived a desperate fightback by Taiwan to grab a 3-2 win in the World Cup qualifying match at Hindmarsh Stadium last night.

The Socceroos, after leading 1-0 at half-time, shot to a 3-0 advantage midway through the second half but were forced into desperation defence as the Taiwanese knocked in two goals in seven minutes.

Sweeper Tony Henderson, after a number of fruitless attacks by the Australian strikers, began a solo run from just inside his own half in the 17th-minute which led to Australia's first goal.

Henderson moved straight down the centre of the field and shrugged off attempts by five Taiwanese defenders before placing the ball wide of goalkeeper Chin Lin.

The Taiwanese were trying to play tight, defensive football but could not match the physically bigger and faster Australians who used the speed of Alan Davidson, on the left and David Mitchell on the right.

Australia's second goal, nine minutes into the second half, was initiated by Henderson who sent Mitchell down the right side and his cross to Kosmina was volleyed into the left corner of the goal.

Kosmina was again in the action 12 minutes later when Krncevic pushed the ball through only to see his teammate tripped in the penalty area. A penalty was awarded and Gary Byrne easily converted.

With 10 minutes remaining Taiwan began pressing into attack while the Australian defence apparently relaxed. Speedy striker Deng Chyan took advantage of momentary confusion between Steve Blair and Henderson to slip between the players and side-foot the ball past the outstretched hands of Australian keeper Allan Maher.

Three minutes from full-time the Australians were again caught flat-footed when Taiwan skipper Chang put a through pass to Deng Chyan who made no mistake in scoring his second goal.

The two Taiwan goals could retain the goal differences in favor of New Zealand if the Kiwis drop a point against Fiji in their final match in August.

Scores: Australia 3 (Henderson 17th-minute, Kosmina, 54th-minute, Byrne penalty 68th-minute) d Taiwan 2 (Deng Chyan 82nd and 89th-minutes).

Brazilian Cruzeiro coming to play Vics

By LAURIE SCHWAB

The best of the brilliant Brazilians will conjure up their soccer magic in Melbourne as a result of some hard bargaining at Middle Park yesterday.

$80,000 ... $50,000 ... $70,000
... $60,000 ... it's a deal!

SLEP,
A NEMA
PSA!

Posle utakmice, kapiten jedne fudbalske ekipe prilazi sudiji i pita ga:
— Kako se zove vaš pas?
— Nema psa — odgovorio je začuđeno sudija.
— Kako je moguće da slep čovek kao vi nema psa? — podrugljivo je dodao kapiten.

Victorian Soccer Federation chairman Michael Weinstein had come to terms with Bela Guttman, general manager of Brazilian club Cruzeiro.

Perhaps the calibre of soccer he was witnessing in South Melbourne Hellas's 1-1 draw with Sydney Olympic persuaded Guttman to settle on the $60,000.

Cruzeiro will play against Victoria in the first match of its world tour at Olympic Park on 31 July.

It will be Cruzeiro's third visit. In previous years it boasted Tostao, Perfumo Dirceu Lopez and Ze Carlos. This time it will bring, among others, Brazilian internationals Neiinho, Eduardo, Jair, and Luis Antonio, not to mention the great Chilean, Elias Figueroa.

National soccer team sinking?

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Socceroo coach Les Scheinflug will be looking for a job after October and captain Murray Barnes almost certainly is at the end of his international career.

There may not even be a national soccer team next year. Instead the States may field their own representative teams against touring sides.

Scheinflug has been a full-time employee of the Australian Soccer Federation since February — first as assistant to Rudi Gutendorf and now as Gutendorf's successor as national coach.

But, according to federation officials, the ASF will have no need for a full-time coach next year, nor the money to pay his wages.

APEL ČLANOVIMA I NAVIJAČIMA J.U.S.T.-a

Članovi i navijači J.U.S.T.-a svake druge nedelje, tokom sezone, dodju da vide utakmicu u kojoj igra njihov tim.

Nesto pre tri sata popodne, toga dana, na terenu je 14 igrača. Trčkaraju i šutiraju lopte jedan drugome i pucaju na gol. Zagrevaju se. A u tri sata počinje utakmica...

Svi su igrači u lepim i čistim dresovima, perfektno opremljeni za igru.

Igralište je obeleženo, trava pokošena, a vidi se da je dan-dva pre utakmice i dobro izvaljano. Klupske zastave su na svojim mestima, na uglovima i u sredini igrališta, mreže lepo postavljene...Sve je na svom mestu i u najboljem redu. Na klupskoj velikoj tabli, finim slovima, izradjenim u plastici, vidi se ime kluba sa kojim toga dana J.U.S.T. igra. U Philips Ligi ima 16 klubova, pa je za tablu spremljeno toliko i imena. Lepe su i brojke koje pokazuju tekući rezultat.

U kantini grupa žena i muževa radi punom parom. Tu se može kupiti razno osvežavajuće piće, čaj i kafa, kremviršle, kranjske kobasice, sve lepo skuvano i spremno da se posluži, a tu je i kantica piva, ohladjena u frižideru...

Do kantine radi se punom parom isto tako. Gospodja Stolf, sa svojim mužem i još nekoliko dama i devojaka, pripremila je salate i uveliko peče izvrsne čevapčice.

Naravno, troje - a ponekad i petoro ljudi - proteralo je kroz mašine za meso toga jutra sto kila mesa za čevape, i na tom poslu provelo 4-5 sati...

Tamo, na kapijama, stoje sedmorica naših ljudi koji kontrolišu ulaze, a nekoliko su zauzeti parkiranjem automobila. Oko igrališta šestorica krstare i paze da mangupi ne preskaču ogradu, ili, što se neki put i desi, da nam žicu ne iseku i kroz rupe udju.

Sav taj svet, i muško i žensko, sve su to članovi i članice J.U.S.T.-a i svi rade dobrovoljno, besplatno, svi svesni da njihovim radom i zalaganjem pomažu klubu da bi mogao da postoji.

I svi oni na poslu provedu celi dan i od utakmice ne vide ni desetak minuta, a svi bi oni, kao i svi koji su na igralištu, još te kako rado videli celu utakmicu...E, al oni ne mogu. Oni su na poslu.

Svi ovi što rade, svi su ove godine zavukli i ruke u svoje džepove i klubu priložili po sto, po dvesta, pet stotina pa i hiljadu dolara, svesni da bez para nema ni kluba, nema ni izlaska na teren, nema J.U.S.T.-a...

I sada da se upitamo: Je li pravo da vi koji sebe smatrate navijačima J.U.S.T.-a, možete samo da dodjete na J.U.S.T.-ovu utakmicu, da platite samo ulaznicu i da fino i nesmetano utakmicu gledate, a da vaš klub ničim drugim ne pomognete??

Svi vi znate, i još kako dobro, da klub samo od prihoda od ulaznica ne može da živi. Svi vi znate, još te kako dobro, da klub ima taj prihod svake druge nedelje, ali da igra svake nedelje i da se igrači, treneri i maseri moraju plaćati svake nedelje u sezoni. A svi znate i to da igrači ne igraju samo za plate od utakmice, nego da sa klubom imaju ugovore koji im garantuju hiljade dolara zato što su igrači kluba.

Svi vi sve to znate!

E, sada, da se stavi ruka na srce i da se svako pošteno upita: A šta sam ja - navijač J.U.S.T.-a - uradio sa svoje strane da klubu pomognem? Koliko je iznosio moj prilog klubu ove godine, koliko sam ja pomogao novčano da J.U.S.T. opstane?

Lepo je to videti Lujica natrag u timu...Lepo je gledati i Ličanina u J.U.S.T.-ovom dresu...Još će lepše biti kad u istom dresu, kroz nedelju-dve, budemo gledali i Iliju Petkovića...Ali, da li se pitate, navijači naši, koliko to klub košta, gde i kako će klub naći novac da se pokriju ti povećani izdaci?

Zato je, smatramo, sasvim na mestu da od vas svih zatražimo da svoj klub pomognete i to samo materijalno, samo priložimo. Ništa više! Pomozite nas novčano, a mi ćemo i dalje, kao i do sada, džupriti na kapijama, tegliti na igralištu, u kantini i na čevapu. Mi ćemo i dalje krečiti igralište i stavljati mreže, gledati da se djubre iznese sa igrališta, da su nam svlačionice u redu, klozeti u redu, da svi igrači imaju dovoljno tople vode da se mogu okupati, da je trava pokošena i igralište izvaljano i da je protivnički tim lepo ugošćen.

I umesto da nas opsužete, da nam skrešete majku i oca, zamislite se malo, zavucite ruku u džep i pomozite nas prilogom. Bilo bi pravo da to učinite.

Nemojte od onoga, koji vam se bude obratio za prilog, da okrenete glavu i izbegnete da date bilo šta. To ne bi bilo ni lepo ni pošteno.

Najbolje bi bilo da sami pridjete i date koliko možete.

Nemojte pomisliti ni jednog trenutka da je nama lako što moljakamo i tražimo. Ali, eto, moramo! Drugog izlaza nemamo. Ako od vas, navijača, nećemo zatražiti, a od koga ćemo? Ko je taj koji naš klub pomaže i koji će J.U.S.T.-u pomoći? (Izuzetak je samo JAT. I svaka mu čast.)

Odgovor je samo jedan: Kao i uvek do sada, za pomoć se možemo obratiti samo vama, članovima i navijačima J.U.S.T.-a.

Priloge možete predati Pajku Pavloviću i Milanu Brkiću, ali i svakom članu Uprave.

Imena priložnika biće objavljena u ovoj klupskoj publikaciji.

Plavi...

Welcome

WOLLONGONG WOLVES

Footscray-J.U.S.T. Soccer Club - and that means our Committee, members and supporters - want you to know that you are very, very welcome to our home ground.

It is not a small wonder that in the first year of existence, Wollongong City Soccer Club has made an impressive mark on the Australian soccer scene. Mid-way through the season, you are occupying the middle of the Philips League ladder and, most importantly and deservedly, every club in the Competition regards Wollongong City Soccer Club as an excellent club, with whom encounters on the playing fields are treated with greatest respect.

What we could see - THANKS TO TV CHANNEL 0/28 - your club has been playing, on numerous occasions, «champagne soccer». Playing that way, your club has proved that good soccer is not played only in the big cities boasting population of millions, but equally as good in other regions and districts of Australia.

By successfully taking on the best clubs in the country, you have intensified general interest in soccer as well.

You will be the first to admit, we are sure, that you were lucky to obtain a full and enthusiastic support of Mr. Laurie Kelly, Speaker of the House in the N.S.W. Parliament. Our Club is sorry that we can not say the same for the Member representing our district in the Victorian State Parliament, although we bear the name of His electorate.

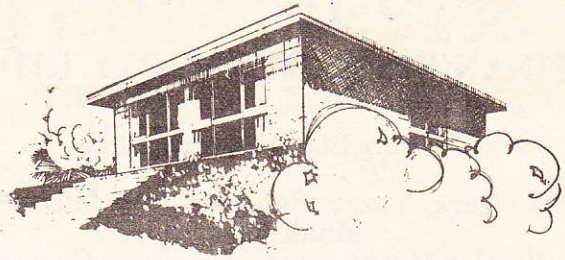

We know that you will be asking the question: HOW IS IT POSSIBLE that a club like Footscray/JUST, so well known all over Australia and so prominent in soccer for thirty one years, can have such modest facilities as the ones on Schintler Reserve?

We will provide the answer: All you can see here was done and paid exclusively by our members and supporters. Nobody else gave us any help, financial or otherwise. Left to ourselves, we were - and still are - the modern day Cinderella, Cinderella of soccer in Victoria.

To improve soccer standard in this State, and for that matter in Australia as well, our club has spent hundreds of thousands of dollars on buildings on this ground, on fencing it and making it playable, on taking care of juniors and bringing players from overseas, players of the calibre of Micic, Mladenovic, Stankovic, Rasic, Rusmir, Buljevic, to name but a few from nearly a hundred. The children of our juniors are playing soccer now all over the State. Yet, we are still waiting for promises of help, given to our club years ago and recently, to materialise.

Footscray/JUST is very happy to congratulate you, Wollongong City Soccer Club, on your initial success and achievement and wishes you to continue the same way. We are sure that your club will be a force in Australian soccer in years to come, and that our club will provide always a worthy and fair opponent on the field, but sincere and friendly club off the field.

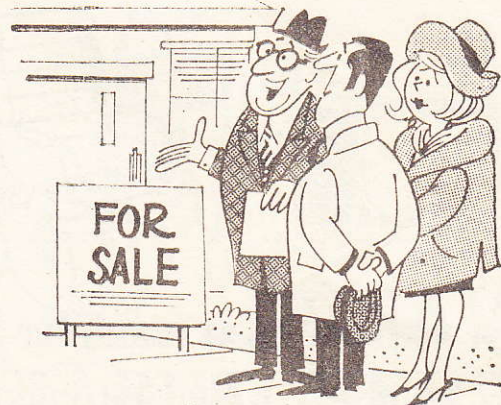

Please, share with us what we have. It is not much, we know, but behind everything we can offer you today you will find a JUST heart.

Overseas rule set to change

The ASF may soon relax the rule confining clubs to three temporary visa players per season.

The rule has never been popular, but it was aimed at giving local talent a go and for that reason clubs played along.

It was the brainchild of ASF president Sir Arthur George, who wanted to see Australian soccer stand on its own feet.

But frankly it hasn't worked.

To begin with, although Australia's youngsters are improving all the time, there are just not enough good players to maintain a high standard.

Secondly, the cost of buying a home-grown player has risen alarmingly because of the ban.

And thirdly, the clubs are still concentrating on shopping overseas and helping those players get permanent residency.

While the influx of overseas players slowed considerably when the new ruling was introduced a couple of seasons ago, it is now virtually back to what it was before.

In short, it just hasn't worked and now the clubs want the situation revised.

The most maligned men in soccer are undoubtedly the referees.

If you listened to supporters, it's not only their parentage that's in doubt, but their sanity, too.

Compliments are rare, but in the case of Don Campbell, from South Australia, well deserved.

Campbell took charge of the South Melbourne-Sydney Olympic game on Sunday and proved himself to be the best referee in Australia.

He has all the qualities necessary to do a difficult job.

He reads the game well and is mobile enough to be where he is needed when needed.

He is able to defuse a potentially explosive situation with a touch of humor.

And he has that magic ability to be able to take complete charge of a game while staying in the background.

As he says: "It's the players the fans come to see, not the referees."

GREEKS SERVE UP A FEAST!

By BOB BRIAN

All those people who want to sever the ethnic connection in Australian soccer should have been at Middle Park yesterday.

They would have joined over 8000 Greeks watching two Greek-backed clubs turning on one of the finest club matches I have seen in this country.

South Melbourne (Helios to its fans but Gunners to the Philips League) drew 1-1 with Sydney Olympic.

Both teams were committed to attack so there was never a shortage of action.

The scoreline could have been 5-5 or even 6-6. It is a tribute to both goalkeepers, Peter Laumets of South, and Peter Wilson of Olympic, that it wasn't.

The old theory that it's goals the fans need to keep them happy was completely shattered.

This was one game which didn't need goals. In fact, I can think of only one thing which could have spoiled it... if one team had lost.

Referee Don Campbell, surely the best in Australia, summed it up this way: "It was one of the easiest games I have ever refereed."

"There was absolutely no aggro. The tackles were fair and the players on both sides took their licks and got on with the game.

"The only time I had to speak to a player was after a jersey-pulling incident concerning Arthur Xanthopoulos, of South Melbourne.

"I told him he could swap jerseys after the game and he burst out laughing."

Another surprising aspect was that there was only one offside decision in the whole game — and that is unusual.

But it speaks volumes for the attitude of both teams.

They played the game the way it should be played, hard, fast and entertaining.

South president Sam Papasavas said: "I wish we could turn out games like that every week. We would be turning people away at the turnstiles."

But one thing which should be remembered. Although both teams were heavily "laced" with UK players, it was the fans who provided the atmosphere.

Soccer takes on TV

LONDON, 7 June. — English soccer has a new strong man at the helm, determined to do something to cure the sport's current troubles.

Jack Dunnett, the new president of the English Football League, will have money-making very much on his mind in the next few months.

The 59-year-old Labor MP for Nottingham East and chairman of Notts County, outlined plans to take on the television and pools companies after his election at Friday's annual meeting, in London.

His manifesto for tackling soccer's ills also includes helping England's international side, battling hooliganism and curbing the decline in attendances.

With league secretary Graham Kelly, a highly-accomplished and professional aide de camp, Dunnett said: "Graham and I will draw up a list of the game's problems, and then try to do something about the main ones."

With the league in economic crisis, cash was naturally a major topic, and Dunnett's legal raining has already helped him draw up a suggestion for an "out of court" settlement of the long-running TV saga.

"Their attitude is like a dog in the manger," he said.

"They pay us £2.3 million ($4 million) a year, which sounds a lot until it is divided between 92 clubs, but they are not prepared to help us over the question of advertising slogans on shirts."

"We are determined to have shirt advertising when the cameras roll."

He proposed also to reduce televised action. "They must cut it down to allow live soccer to survive, so TV will have something left to screen."

"Gates have fallen 11 per cent over the past season and all the management committee know something is wrong — we are not idiots."

"Our pools contract has four years to run and next time we will want a better deal. The pools need our fixtures, the TV people need our matches so we should get what we need in return."

He suggested the league would be prepared to alter fixtures to help the England international manager. But he emphasised he did not believe the league needed trimming.

Stupid Cupid

Cupid has laid siege on Footscray/J.U.S.T.

Vlatko Belić was married recently, wedding bells chimed for Paul Šimić, and now Slobodan Jovanović has stepped on a «silly stone».

They will be married on June 27.

OUR FEDERATION TEAM

FOOTSCRAY/J.U.S.T. team in the Second division improved a lot this season.

Despite some setbacks and an unjust decision by the Federation (taking away two points for playing J. Milne), we are successfully fighting for promotion.

Last week we gave a soccer lesson to the greedy Melbourne soccer club, which is a mere shadow of a former Hungarian club.

We defeated them by 3:0, but we lost two best players, because of the opponents rough tactics. We hope Tom Karić and Slobode Stojčevski will recover in time for our next important encounter versus Doncaster Rovers.

J.U.S.T. team: Milutin Ćirić, Tom Karić (Tom Vuković), Ivica Karić, Tony Vella, Danče Smurgrevski, Pavle Simić, Sulejman Ćurović, Lube Talevski (Dragi Nedelkovski), Duško Atanasovski.

Milenko Rusmir, a well known exponent of the game, is now in charge of our reserve and under 19 teams. They have still to learn a lot. The following boys played last week v. Melbourne (and lost 4:0): Zoran Stojković, Siniša Perduv, Dragan Sekulovski, Mićo Musulin, Marino Oblak, Emil Petrov, Robert Stolf (Zoran Bugarski), Dragan Bibović, Miki Cvetkovski, Saša Sijačić, Dragan Nedelkovski (Manuel Perduv).

Docherty sceptical of Olympians' huge offer

By GREG PRICHARD

SYDNEY Olympians coach Tommy Docherty, who intends leaving for England next week, is sceptical of the Philips Soccer League club's huge offer to him to stay in Australia.

Olympians president, Mr John Constantine, approached Docherty with an offer of $100,000 a year for three years on Tuesday, after a committee meeting.

Docherty declined the offer, preferring to return to the "big-time" English football and coach the team he formerly played with, third division club Preston North End.

Mr Constantine says Olympians could produce the money, but Docherty yesterday wasn't so sure.

Docherty said: "It's a lovely club and I get on well with the people there, but there's no way they can raise that sort of money - not with all the goodwill in the world."

"I will be leaving Australia next Thursday".

Mr Constantine said yesterday Olympians is likely to appoint a local coach for the rest of the season, and secure a top-line coach from England for next season in the meantime.

He said: "If we appoint a local coach, we would make it quite clear to him that his position with the club is only until the end of the season."

"We don't want to rush into appointing an overseas coach straight away"

Nije čudo što su utakmice loše, nego kako se i takve prodaju.

Igra je sve jalovija. Kao da treneri ne daju koncepciju, nego kontracepciju.

JUNIOR SCENE

Under 10:

Lalor - J.U.S.T. 1:4 (0:1)

Scorers: Slobodan Grmuša 2, Damir Gnjiđić i Radomir Talevski.

Our Line-up: Goran Erdevički, Branko Vidić, Goce Culevski, Živko Razmovski, Damir Gnjiđić, Andrija Šepić, Danny Pegić, Radomir Talevski, Robert Triponovski, Dragan Surbevski, Slobodan GRMUŠA. Reserves: Tony Aleksov, Duško Knežević. Coach Josip Surbevski.

Under 11:

J.U.S.T. - West United 1:2 (1:0)

Scorer for J.U.S.T. Saša Bećvinovski.

Under 13:

Essendon/Croatia «C» -

J.U.S.T. 2:5 (1:3)

Scorers for J.U.S.T.: Zoran Milić 2, Toni Bećvinkovski, Peter Grmuša and Jack Papathomas.

J.U.S.T. line-up: Straša Fulkovski, Toni Bećvinkovski (Siniša Perduv), Radenko Arapović (Zoran Milić), Tecel Tanis, Paul Karipidis, Goce Nedelkovski, Goran Simić, Srdjan Lazić (Jack Papathomas), Peter Grmuša, Saša Brkić, Steven Brkić.

Two of our boys, goal keeper Straša Fulkovski and striker Saša Brkić played last monday for Western Suburbs eleven, which defeated Geelong 1:0. Saša Brkić did not score, but earned a great applause for tremendous shot which rebounded off the crossbar. Needless to say, goalkeeper Straša Fulkovski had plenty to do and most spectators thought he was best on the ground.

JUNIOR SCENE

Pre 16 godina juniori JUST-a ispod 16 godina postigli su rekord svoje vrste, koji nije nigde zabeležen,

IZ SLAVNIH DANA

JUST-ov VREMEPLOV

zahvaljujući lošoj administraciji u Viktoriji, gde su se nekoliko puta blagajnici isparili zajedno sa knjigama, za šta nikog nije zaboljela glava.

Ali ovde je važan JUST-ov tim ispod 16 godina, koji je 1965. i 1966. uzastopce osvojio prvenstvo Viktorije bez ijednog poraza.

Takodje je dva puta osvojio juniorski kup. 1966. godine odigrao je 16 prvenstvenih utakmica bez primljenog gola, a postigao 164!
